

Lapland Safari Week

8 days/7 nights

Suitable for beginners or families with children of 6 years upwards

This adventure is based on day trips from your comfortable base with an option to stay in a cabin overnight if you wish. You can expect to be out from mid-morning to mid afternoon with a lunch stop by a warm fire. We usually travel around 20 to 30km per day. Evenings will involve taking a sauna, relaxing and dining with local menu. If you would like a day off or to finish earlier some days then we can visit local Sami museums, or take a day trip to the Ice Hotel in Kiruna.

You can expect a very warm and friendly welcome from your guides here who just love to share their home, dogs and environment with you. You will have a lot of fun with them and the dogs and will enjoy great hospitality and they are always willing to go the extra mile to make sure you have a fantastic time.

Note: www.sas.com might offer direct flights from Heathrow to Luleå on Saturdays.

Saturday

Arrival day. You will be met at Luleå Airport and transferred to your accommodation just outside Jokkmokk. We introduce you to the dogs, then we have dinner and discuss our coming adventure, you can also have a sauna.

Sunday

We commence our first full day with some dog sledding instruction and training. We then start our trip out in the forest and stop for lunch over the open fire. Return to base camp with dinner and sauna at your accommodation.

Monday to Friday

We start our trips each day around 10.00am planning a route the evening before to go out in the forest or small mountain area's (each day is different route) and we always stop for a cooked lunch over the open fire. Each evening we return to base camp and dinner is then served and you may take time to take a sauna and shower at your accommodation. We can visit some local shops and tourist attractions on our return in the late afternoon. We can plan an overnight stop at a cabin if you wish.

Saturday

After breakfast it is time to say goodbye and return to the airport for your journey home.
